What Do They Say They Do?	"Dremio is a next-generation data lake engine that liberates your data with live, interactive queries directly on cloud data lake storage. We started Dremio to shatter a 30 year old paradigm that holds virtually every company back. Removing barriers, accelerating time to insight, putting control in the hands of the user. "
Customers Include:	Diageo. UBS. Standard Chartered.
Employees:	Circa 250.
Our Viewpoint:	Dremio enables users to query directly on the cloud data lake storage and in doing so they enable data engineers to be more productive and get insights much quicker. They recently announced Series D funding to achieve Unicorn-status and partner with a number of industry heavyweights including the likes of AWS and Microsoft Azure. They offer a new approach to making the most of cloud data lakes when data lakes are one of the hottest technologies available.
